The CDBG Program office will provide an overview of the CDBG Program, explain the 2006 Proposal Application Packet requirements and competitive selection process, and have staff available to answer questions concerning CDBG funding. These informational workshops are offered free of charge to interested persons.

Eligible community organizations that may be interested in participating in this process and wish to become more familiar with the CDBG Program requirements should attend one of the seven (7) public application workshops that are scheduled as noted above. Please call the CDBG Program Office at 270-7213 two (2) days prior to the workshop to reserve a seat. Technical assistance meetings may also be scheduled with the CDBG Program Office as needed after attending the CDBG workshop, but can only be held prior to the open application period.

The evaluation and selection of projects proposed for CDBG funding is subject to a competitive Request for Proposal (RFP) process. The Proposal Application Packet for the program year 2006 shall be available at the CDBG Program Office during the open application period which is tentatively scheduled to begin in late October 2005. The open application period shall be of the duration of no less than the minimum 30 day period required. Public Notices shall be published in the Maui News, Lanai Times and the Molokai Dispatch to confirm the open application period for the RFP.
